

WARNERS
solicitors

the Good Caregroup

Presenter Profiles

Simon Rozzier, Solicitor - Warners Solicitors

Simon is an experienced private client solicitor who provides advice on a broad range of private client matters. Simon advises clients on matters including Trusts, Wills, Estates, Lasting Powers of Attorney and Court of Protection applications and will always consider ancillary matters when dealing with a client. Simon has extensive experience of working with older clients and he knows how to deal with complex matters in a caring and understanding way.

Simon, along with the other members of Warners private client team has been accredited by the Law Society's Wills and Inheritance Quality Scheme. This shows that they follow best practice procedures to meet the highest standards of technical expertise and client service in providing tailored wills and probate advice to consumers.

Dr Penny Hibberd

Penny is an experienced RN, RMN, DN, PGCLT(HE). She has worked as a specialist dementia care nurse for the last fifteen years. She has extensive experience in community nursing, leadership in nursing and practice development. Penny works collaboratively with a variety of businesses, health and social care services and the independent sector.

She has leadership and practice skills in the design, validation and delivery of a range of Higher Education dementia care courses and programmes, the design and delivery of bespoke dementia care training to meet customer needs in health, social care and the independent sector, bid writing, project management within health, social care, independent sector and business. She has a range of publications and has presented at national and international level.

Elaine Ferris, Area Director – The Good Care Group

Elaine is an experienced care professional. She has worked for over 25 years' in health and social care settings, including NHS, MOD hospitals, GP's surgeries, residential, home care and nursing care. Elaine was General Manager and Registered Manager of a private care home for seven years where she operated a large dementia community. She has commissioned services, managed, trained and coached large teams.

As Area Director for The Good Care Group, she uses her experience and leadership skills in her accountability for excellence and compliance across Kent and Sussex working collaboratively with professionals and organisations to build partnerships, uphold best practice and to develop business across the region.

Neil Whitaker, Chartered Financial Planner

Neil Whitaker is a Chartered Financial Planner and specialises in advising clients on care fees funding, estate preservation and investments. Neil has been a full member of the Society of Later Life Advisers (SOLLA) since July 2010, after becoming the first Independent Financial Adviser in Kent to be awarded the Later Life Adviser Accreditation. He has also been an Affiliate of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP) since December 2011.

Neil is a Partner at Goodman Care Fees Advisers, which prides itself on providing a caring approach and a professional, reliable service – evidenced by numerous client testimonials. Established more than 30 years, the firm has built an excellent reputation with a team of highly experienced, qualified advisers and support staff.